Operation Bold Alligator

Members of the Coast Guard Port Security Unit 308 walk across the tarmac Jan. 28 at Stennis International Airport, Miss., in support of Operation Bold Alligator 2012. The team boarded a C-5 Galaxy, flown by members of the Air Force Reserve Command's 709th Airlift Squadron, based at Dover Air Force Base, Del. Operation Bold Alligator, which takes place off the coasts of Virginia, North Carolina, and Florida, is the largest amphibious assault exercise in a decade.
