512th Airlift Wing, Dover Air Force Base, Del.

Welcome CINC/IE team

Team Dover welcomes the Commander in Chief Installation Excellence selection board, which will evaluate various parts of the Liberty and Eagle Wings this week. Dover Air Force Base is competing against Elmendorf AFB, Alaska, for the honor of being named the Commander in Chief's pick for the best Air Force base and a prize of $1 million.

Free tutoring available

The site <http://www.tutor.com/military> offers round-the-clock professional tutors who can assist with homework, studying, test preparation, resume writing and more. Active-duty servicemembers, Guard and Reserve members on active duty in a deployed status, DOD civilians in a deployed status and their dependents are eligible to participate. Along with test preparation, the site is open to students of any age, from kindergartners to high school seniors, for one-on-one help in math, science, social studies and English.

Big bucks

Celebrate African American Heritage

Feb. 16 is the deadline to purchase tickets for the African American Heritage Luncheon at 11:30 a.m. Feb. 26 at the Landings. The guest speaker is Maj. Gen. Darren McDew, vice director for Strategic Plans and Policy, Joint Staff, Pentagon. Tickets cost $10.50 for club members and $12.50 for nonmembers. Liberty Wing members can contact Angela Davis at (302) 677-5650 for tickets.

Indoor flea market this weekend

There's an indoor flea market from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. Feb. 6 in the Landings Ballroom. Items to be expected include yard sale items, crafts, baked goods and more.

Base members interested in setting up a table to sell items can do so for $6 a table with a limit of two tables per person. Set up time is from 8 - 9 a.m. Pre-registration is not required. For more information, call (302) 677-3289.

C-5M tests, evaluations complete

After nearly four months of missions and demonstrations, Team Dover Airmen completed operational testing and evaluation of the C-5M Super Galaxy. With OT&E complete, the Air Force Operational Test and Evaluation Center will present their findings to the Department of Defense and Congress, based on the tests conducted at Dover AFB.

Throughout OT&E, 436th and 512th Airlift Wing aircrews flew various missions to demonstrate the capabilities and reliability of the C-5M. These missions included local training missions and wartime surge operations designed along wartime operational parameters.

During OT&E, the three C-5Ms assigned to Dover AFB delivered 4.5 million pounds of cargo, with more than 3.8 million pounds moved during the 30-day surge operations, said Maj. Cory Bulris, 436th OG C-5M Program Integration Office chief. Read the full story at <http://www.512aw.afrc.af.mil/news/story.asp?id=123188268>.
