On top of the world

Staff Sgt. James Grove, a 326th Airlift Squadron loadmaster, marshals in a Halverson K-loader at 8 Wing at Canadian Forces Base, Trenton, Ontario, Aug. 13. The C-17 aircrew delivered the piece of equipment to Thule Air Base, Greenland, as part of the Canadian Operation BOXTOP, conducted twice a year. Supplies are staged at Thule AB and Canadian C-130s Hercules crews then deliver the cargo to Canadian Forces Stations Alert and Eureka on Ellesmere Island, Nunavut, 400 miles north of Thule.

Employer Appreciation Day deadline extended through Aug. 27

Senior Airman Bhawan Singh
512th Airlift Wing Public Affairs

The deadline for submissions for the 512th Airlift Wing Employer Appreciation Day has been extended through Aug. 27. Employer Appreciation Day is scheduled for Oct. 2. Wing leadership encourages reservists to invite their civilian employers to this annual event to showcase what their Air Force Reserve employees do on unit training assembly weekends.

The civilian employers will have the opportunity to meet with wing leadership, tour work areas, learn more about the C-5 Galaxy and C-17 Globemaster III and get a feel for the 512th AW mission.

Reservists may nominate their civilian employer for Employer Day by downloading the form online at www.512aw.afrc.af.mil and selecting Why Not Nominate an Employer for a Flight on the bottom left-hand side. Alternatively, they can also e-mail information to 512aw.pa@us.af.mil by Aug. 27.
